

Why would you want to overturn a law that is working? Unless of course the FCC see it's mission as AGAINST the citizens of this country and FOR special interests.

Your track record has not been something you should be proud of.

We in NJ do not want our laws watered down for the sake of vested interests.